Introduction

The Suburban Land Agency (SLA) delivers residential, commercial and industrial developments across Canberra. We create great places where communities thrive. How we do this:

1. We plan future communities. We're guided by placemaking and sustainable design practices.
2. Residential buyers, builders and developers purchase land from us.
3. We work closely with communities to build connected and thriving neighbourhoods.

As part of the SLA's commitment to thriving communities, the SLA Display Village has been purpose built with curated activities and experiences regularly programmed and delivered on site. They celebrate the key themes of creativity, entrepreneurship, wellbeing, collaboration and sustainability.

The suburb of Whitlam was named after Prime Minister Gough Whitlam who was a great supporter of the arts and accordingly, the suburb's streets have been named after artists.

The SLA Display Village is located within Whitlam and has thirteen display homes including four owned by the SLA. These homes form part of the SLA innovation precinct within which the Artist's studio will be located. They are open from Thursday to Sunday each week, with members of the public able to self-guide through each house. Visitation can range from 2 to 20 people per day.

Public events are run regularly at the precinct, attracting visitors from across Canberra. Weekly events and activities are also delivered by the Mingle team for local residents in the Mingle community space and SLA Display Village. The SLA Sales and Information team are on site from Thursday to Sunday 10am to 4pm.

Invitation

As part of the SLA's commitment to creativity and entrepreneurship, we invite local artists to reflect on the themes of both Whitlam and the SLA and submit an expression of interest in taking up an Artist in Residence.

We offer artists a self-directed 3-5 day per week residency program for a 3 month duration, commencing from September 2024. It is open to artists seeking dedicated time and space to develop and work on creative and artistic projects for the duration of the residency. The space is suitable for artists working in many creative disciplines.

It is open to artist of all ages (18 +) and stages in their career. Individual applicants or groups may apply, however the stipend payment is per residency and only one studio is available.

The studio is available from Wednesday to Sunday 10am – 4pm.

The Site and Artist Studio

The Artist will be located in the Artist Studio, address:

Suburban Land Agency and Innovation Precinct

3 Klaus Moje Street

Whitlam ACT 2615

The artist's studio is in a modified garage known as the 'Sustainability Garage' featuring glass bifold doors and located within one of the display homes (see photos in Appendix 1). It forms the entrance to the self-guided tour, with partitions separating the public from the artist to create a semi-private space.

The Artist in Residence studio offers a modified 5.54m (d) x 4.4m (w) x 2.78m (h) space. It contains a moveable work bench, two computer screens, a wall mounted monitor, stand up desk, washable floors, sink, lockable cupboard, multiple power points, some wall space and pinboard partitions. Artists are able to negotiate use of this equipment.

Cleaning equipment will be provided to the artist to maintain a clean and tidy workspace.

Also located on site in the Mingle community space are toilets, free parking, a shared community space with kitchen facilities and a café nearby. The site is wheelchair accessible. Parking is free and is located next to the café with prearranged access permissible.

The successful Artist will be required to undertake a Site Induction before commencing their Residency.

See Appendix 1 for a diagram and photos of the workspace.

Material Considerations

The studio is subject to certain provisions, as it is a public space. Use of dangerous substances may not be permitted. Tools that pose a fire risk are unable to be used within the studio.

The studio does not have a clay trap, therefore may not be suitable for ceramicists. Disposal of paints or solvents will be the responsibility of the Artist.

As it is in a semi-public space, security provisions are limited and lockable cupboards are provided. However, there is no guarantee for the security of artist's work or equipment which is left out.
