Suburban Land Agency

The Suburban Land Agency (the Agency) is a Territory Authority established under the City Renewal Authority and Suburban Land Agency Act 2017.

The Agency is the Government's vehicle for developing residential, commercial, industrial and community land on greenfield sites and through urban renewal projects. Through all of the Agency's projects, we aim to provide positive economic, social and sustainable outcomes to benefit all Canberrans.

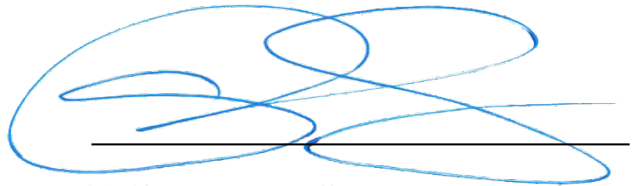

The Statement of Intent, which focuses on the 2017-18 Budget year, has been developed in the context of a four year forward planning horizon. We will use it as the basis for the Suburban Land Agency's strategic and business planning processes.

This Statement of Intent has been prepared in accordance with Section 61 of the Financial Management Act 1996, and through consultation with Ms Yvette Berry MLA, the responsible Minister.

PURPOSE

The Suburban Land Agency (the Agency) is responsible for the ACT Government's suburban development program. This includes urban renewal in established town centres and suburbs outside 'declared urban renewal precincts'.

The Agency was set up to encourage and promote inclusive communities. We put people at the heart of every neighbourhood we design and deliver, and our suburban development projects are geared to support:

- a healthy and safe population;
- citizens feeling connected to their suburb and community;
- environmentally sustainable outcomes;
- a choice of housing products for people at all stages in their lives; and
- working towards providing all Canberrans an opportunity to own their own home.

The Agency is responsible for encouraging and promoting urban renewal in a variety of areas. Through this we contribute to whole of government efforts to grow and diversify the Territory's economy and to social and environmental sustainability.

The Agency must always operate efficiently, delivering value for money in everything we do. We must conform with sound risk management practices.

The functions of the Agency are to:

- buy and sell leases of land on behalf of the Territory;
- supply enough land to meet the government's targets of land for public, community and affordable housing projects;
- carry out development of land in an environmentally sustainable way, supporting statutory greenhouse gas emissions targets;
- follow and support whole of government strategies.

The Agency will undertake its functions in a trustworthy, professional and responsible way, working collaboratively across government to deliver on its objectives.

WHAT WE AIM TO ACHIEVE

Key results for the Agency when completing our objectives and complying with policy are to:

- deliver the Government's Indicative Land Release Program (further details of this can be found on page eight);
- improve suburban sustainability;
- acquire land in a strategic way;
- improve housing affordability;
- contribute to the loose-fill asbestos (Mr Fluffy) response;
- work with the government on public housing renewal;
- promote investment opportunities in the ACT land market through Invest Canberra;
- advise Government on property market conditions – this will support target-setting and direct sales of land;
- deliver high quality, sustainable developments including public spaces and community development;
- encourage and support innovation to build a city for the future including transport, connectivity and energy efficiency; and
- provide a choice of land to make sure there is a good supply for construction and development in the Territory. This will include land in greenfield and urban renewal developments.

By acting in a trustworthy, responsible and professional way, the Agency will:

- work efficiently and provide agreed returns to the Territory;
- consider the long-term sustainability of the Territory in all key commercial decisions on greenfield land in the ACT;
- engage with the community in a clear, honest and professional way about the land development process and projects.

In balancing public sector and commercial priorities, the Agency will grow and maintain good relationships with the private sector and across the ACT Government.

Government's Expectations

The Minister for Housing and Suburban Development wrote to the Chair of the Suburban Land Agency on 25 August 2017. The Minister outlined the Government's expectations of the Suburban Land Agency in performing its statutory responsibilities under the City Renewal Authority and Suburban Land Agency Act 2017.

The Minister gave advice on the role of the Agency, indicated which Government policies and objectives are relevant to its activities, and the key principles of accountability, transparency and participation. These principles will define the Agency's activities in the 2017-18 financial year and in the future.

Key expectations detailed in the Minister's letter include that the Agency will:

- create liveable communities and developments that people want and ensure engagement with the community is proactive and inclusive;
- ensure decision making is well reasoned, justified and documented appropriately;
- advise the Government and Minister of any issues and key deliverables in a timely manner;
- work openly and collaboratively with the Environment, Planning and Sustainable Development Directorate;
- build a positive organisational culture that values continuous improvement and diversity in its staffing.

Statement of Planning Intent

The Statement of Planning Intent sets out the key planning priorities for the ACT Government. It builds on the ACT Planning Strategy and other relevant strategic frameworks related to transport and climate change. This 2017-18 Suburban Land Agency Statement of Intent is consistent with the objectives of the Statement of Planning Intent 2015, released by the Minister for Planning and Land Management, Minister Gentleman MLA.

The Statement of Planning Intent aims to create a more compact and sustainable city that is inclusive, vibrant, connected, prosperous and environmentally responsible. It encourages quality design of public spaces, to promote innovation and flexibility in the planning system and to effectively manage planning and design outcomes on the ground.

The Agency will provide support in recognising and responding to the community's desire for:

- compact and sustainable neighbourhoods;
- collaboration between the public and private sectors;
- housing choice and affordability;
- improved quality of urban design in public spaces;
- showcasing of sustainability and quality design in new developments and precincts; and
- improved transport options for the ACT.

ACT Government and Other Planning Strategies

In planning for and developing of new land estates the Suburban Land Agency aims to meet a number of planning strategies and codes. These are incorporated as a minimum into all residential estates where 500 or more dwellings are planned. Smaller estates will include compliance with relevant requirements. These strategies, codes and other items include:

- Estate Development Code;
- Crime Prevention through Environmental Design General Code;
- Waterways: Water Sensitive Urban Design General Code;
- Structure Plans, Concept Plans or Precinct Codes for the identified area;
- Environmental, and Heritage legislation and strategies including the Environmental Protection Act 1997, Nature Conservation Strategy 2013-2023 and Heritage Act 2004;
- Climate change and energy efficiency legislation and policy including Climate Change and Greenhouse Gas Reduction Act 2010 and ACT Climate Change Adaptation Strategy 2016;
- For public domain elements the Design Standards for Urban Infrastructure and associated documents
- Active Travel Framework;
- Affordable Housing Action Plan including the Housing Target Policy.

Land Supply

The Indicative Land Release Program (ILRP) and targets are developed by the ACT Government each year. Going forward, the Suburban Land Agency will be involved in the development of the ILRP.

The release targets for 2017-18 were agreed with the previous Land Development Agency during the transition to the new land arrangements. These arrangements began on 1 July 2017.

The ILRP aims to meet market needs, by providing a range of land choices. This range will mean that a variety of housing types can be developed, as well as different sizes of commercial and industrial property.

The 2017-18 to 2020-21 Indicative Land Release Program includes residential, commercial, industrial and community releases. These are all an important part of the ACT Government's economic, social and environmental strategic planning framework.

The ILRP gives guidance on how the Government intends to release land. This information can be useful for certain people and organisations. These might include property developers, builders, homeowners, investors, community organisations and business and industry sectors.

The Agency is responsible for managing the release of land for residential, commercial, industrial and community purposes specified under the program by:

- releasing serviced sites from its own greenfield estates, urban renewal and infill locations;
- partnering with others in joint venture developments;
- releasing large areas of raw land directly to the private sector; and
- giving feedback to the Directorate about delivery of the Indicative Land Release Program, including any suggested changes.

STRATEGIES FOR 2017-18 TO 2020-21

The Agency will use the following strategies to achieve its aims, manage risks and deliver on ACT Government policies and priorities from 2017-18 to 2020-21:

- work alongside Government agencies, and in line with Government strategies, to build an inventory of environmentally cleared, planned, release ready and serviced land;
- collaborate and co-operate with Government agencies and the community to work on key government development priorities. These might be in town centres, major transport corridors and urban infill areas. They are not in City Renewal Authority defined areas;
- engage and build strategic relationships with local communities, industry associations, special interest groups and the broader ACT community to make sure any relevant interests are identified and considered in land release activities;
- facilitate and support the delivery of affordable housing including community and public housing;
- partner with others to deliver land release and development projects, such as the innovative West Belconnen Joint Venture (Ginninderry);
- make active travel (walking and cycling) part of Canberrans' daily lives in the design and development of new suburbs;
- promote liveable communities by providing different types of blocks and public spaces to suit the needs of residents and surrounding communities;
- deliver community building and development programs to encourage resident involvement and connection to their local community;
- make sure the public is properly informed of what the Agency is doing, building community confidence and understanding in the Agency and its operations;
- promote diversity, including gender equality, within the Agency workplace with a particular focus on supporting women in senior management, engineering and related streams, which may include partnering with local universities on scholarship and internship opportunities;
- continue to develop strategies to reaffirm a positive culture in the Agency; and
- ensure all projects are subject to the appropriate governance by developing a contemporary framework with the guidance and oversight of the Environment, Planning and Sustainable Development Directorate.

Notes to the Controlled Budget Statements

Explanatory notes to the Controlled Budget Statements explain any variations between the 2016-17 estimated outcome to the 2016-17 and 2017-18 Budgets.

However, as the City Renewal Authority and Suburban Land Agency Act 2017 established the Suburban Land Agency from the 1 July 2017, notes are not provided due to the absence of 2016-17 Budget and estimated outcome.
